APPLICATION FOR PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.705

In response to the Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C.
§ 154(b) indicated on the front cover of U.S. Patent No. 7,122,655, Applicants hereby request reconsideration of the patent term adjustment.

The correct patent term adjustment is 232 days. The calculation of Applicants' delay is incorrect and should be changed from 210 days to 90 days.

12/13/2006 WABDEL3 00000027 10715632 200.00 OP
01 FC:1455

Applicants agree with the calculation of 322 days of USPTO delay.

The relevant dates as specified in §§ 1.704(a) through (e) for which an adjustment is sought are as follows:

Applicants agree with the determination of a delay of 90 days prior to the issuance of the Notice of Allowance.

The Office has ascribed 120 days of delay for “Workflow- Drawings Finished” (see PTA History from PAIR, Exhibit 1). The date is the date the Office received formal drawings in compliance with Notice Regarding Drawings mailed on April 7, 2006, after the issue fee was paid. This Notice from the Office was the first request for formal drawings, and Applicants promptly replied. During prosecution, the Office issued a Notice to File Missing Parts on March 19, 2004 (Exhibit 2) requesting replacement drawings for Figures 2D and 6B. Applicant replied on May 21, 2004, enclosing a Petition to Accept Color Drawings and replacement copies of Figures 2D and 6B (Exhibit 3). The Office subsequently issued a Notice of Allowability on July 7, 2005 (Exhibit 4), in which the drawings filed on November 17, 2003, i.e., the filing date, were accepted. Applicants submit that compliance with the Notice after payment of the issue fee was not a failure to engage in reasonable efforts to conclude prosecution, as the Office expressly indicated to Applicants during prosecution that the drawings were acceptable.

The total number of days of Applicants’ delay is thus 90 days, not 210 days as calculated by the Office.

The term of adjustment under 37 C.F.R. § 1.703 (f), equal to the sum of the periods calculated under 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.703 (a) through (e), to the extent that such periods are not overlapping, less the sum of the periods calculated under 37 C.F.R. § 1.704, is 232 days.

The application is not subject to a terminal disclaimer.

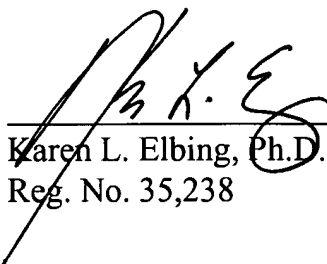

CONCLUSION

Applicants submit that the current patent term adjustment should be 232 days, with an Applicants' delay of 90 days, and request reconsideration of the patent term adjustment.

Applicants submit $200.00 for the fee set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.18(e). If there are any additional charges or any credits, please apply them to Deposit Account No. 03-2095.

Respectfully submitted,
